

EDUCATION DEVELOPER

Blick Art Materials, the nation's leading provider of art supplies and a certified Great Place to Work, is seeking qualified candidates for a full-time Education Developer.

OVERALL PURPOSE AND MAIN OBJECTIVES:

- Conceptualize, design and write art education lesson plans to effectively incorporate National Core Arts Standards for grades K–12 with original or adaptive content
- Create original artwork pieces as display examples of lesson plans
- Conduct lesson plan project-making workshops at art educator conferences
- Represent Blick Art Materials as an exhibitor at art education and other trade shows
- Conduct video demonstrations of lesson plans

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Experiment with art products and processes to design new lesson plans using materials and/or techniques not readily found in research
- Create multiple artwork samples of lesson plan projects for display and photography
- Compose concise and clear written lesson plan instructions for catalog and web use
- Plan and communicate workshop supply requirements
- Prepare scripts and artwork examples for video recordings of lesson plans • Other related duties as assigned

SKILLS:

- Familiarity and understanding of National Core Arts Standards for Visual Arts
- Understanding of and successful application of artistic principles and elements of design
- Detailed knowledge of and proficiency with use of a wide variety of art materials
- Highly effective communication skills, both written and verbal
- Effective instruction and presentation skills with adult audiences
- PC skills, including MS Word, MS Excel, MS Outlook

EDUCATION:

- Bachelor's degree in Art Education, Fine Arts, or Studio Arts

WORK ENVIRONMENT:

- Ability to independently travel via car and airplane • Ability to lift 40-lbs and physically setup exhibit displays
- Office and project studio space • Convention and conference centers

COMPENSATION:

Competitive wage/benefits package, which includes 401(k), profit sharing, and bonus incentive plans.

No phone calls, please. For consideration, please email resume to recruiting@dickblick.com or mail to HR Dept., PO Box 1267, Galesburg, IL 61402-1267. EOE.

BLICK[®]
art materials